

Port Church Youth Group “Covenant of Conduct”

I agree to abide by the following standards of conduct while involved in any and all events of the Port Church Youth Group. I understand that this code of conduct is in the best interests of all those who attend our youth group as well as myself. All of us deserve a positive, safe, and secure environment.

General Standards of Conduct:

- I will participate in all activities unless excused by an adult leader.
- I will respect and follow any and all directions given by an adult leader or chaperone.
- I will not leave the designated area of activity unless with the permission of an adult leader and only then in the company of another person.
- I will arrive at the prearranged meeting place at the prearranged time.
- I will not engage in any excessive displays of affection nor any sexual activity of any type.
- I will not bring anything considered illegal for minors to possess or use under civil law to any event, nor will I be under the influence of said items when I attend a Port Church Youth Group event, which include but are not limited to drugs, alcohol, firearms, other weapons, and fireworks.
- My conduct, language, and appearance (including dress), will be in keeping with the highest Christian regard for all persons, including myself.
- I will abide by the “Covenant of Conduct” for any event where the Port Church Youth Group is either sponsor or participant.

Regular Youth Night Standard of Conduct

- From the opening prayer to the closing prayer during a regular Port Church Youth Group meeting, all electronic equipment must be turned off and put away. Included, but not limited to, “electronic equipment” are cell phones, iPads, laptops, gaming devices, etc. I understand that I will be given one warning to put the item(s) away, after which, if I am caught using them, the device(s) will be confiscated.
- I will respect the other areas of the church not assigned for use by the Port Church Youth Group during a regular youth group meeting/program.

Off-Site Youth Activity Standards of Conduct

- I will follow directions of adult leaders of the church or group with whom we are working or staying.
- I will follow the directions of all Port Church Youth Group leaders, especially regarding lights out.
- I will respect other areas of the church or other location not assigned for use by our group.
